Criminals extort money from elderly car drivers by faking accidents

A gang operating in city is targeting only aged persons driving four-wheelers

Mysuru, June 21 (RK&KS)- Two-wheeler riders who are targeting senior citizens driving four-wheelers to extort money are blaming them of committing accidents. Three cases of such incidents taking place in a span of 15 days in city are reported.

After waylaying cars driven by elderly people, the criminals tell the old driver that he had hit their two-wheeler and the pillion rider had sustained injuries. The miscreants then extort money for the treatment from the senior citizens.

In one of such incidents, the criminals who targeted a retired Kannada Professor put forth a demand for Rs. 30,000 and finally extorted Rs. 1,400 from him.

The retired Professor, who was targeted, is Prof. K.P. Mahadevappa, a resident of Kuvempunagar E&F Block. On May 26, Prof. Mahadevappa was proceeding towards a Bank in Vijayanagar 2nd Stage. When he was passing near the University Guest House, he heard a sound. Mahadevappa, who did not stop the car, kept on driving slowly and when he neared the Paduvarahalli Traffic Signal Circle, two youths on a bike, overtook the car and waylaid it. While one of the youths sat on the roadside, the other youth came to the car and told Mahadevappa, "What sir, you hit our bike and kept going without stopping."

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

As a yoga enthusiast, I understand the importance of having a skilled and knowledgeable yoga instructor. A good yoga instructor can help you achieve your goals, whether you are looking to increase your flexibility, reduce stress, or improve your overall health and wellness. However, not all yoga instructors are created equal. It is important to evaluate your yoga instructor to ensure that they are the right fit for you.

Evaluating your yoga instructor is important for several reasons. First and foremost, it ensures that you are in safe hands. Yoga can be a physically demanding practice and an inexperienced or poorly trained yoga instructor can cause injury. Additionally, it helps you determine if they have the knowledge and skills necessary to help you achieve your fitness goals. Finally, it can help you avoid wasting time and money on a practice that is not right for you.

To assess your yoga instructor's knowledge and skills, start by observing their teaching style. Do they demonstrate poses clearly? Do they give clear and concise instructions? Do they provide modifications for students with different abilities or injuries? Additionally, do not hesitate to ask your yoga instructor about their training and experience. A good yoga instructor should have completed a comprehensive teacher training programme and continue to attend workshops and continuing education courses to stay up-to-date with the latest research and techniques.

Some of the most common adverse effects of incorrect yoga practice include muscle strains, joint pain, and nerve damage. Further, it can exacerbate existing injuries or conditions or lead to new injuries. It is essential to work with a yoga instructor who has a deep understanding of anatomy and physiology and who can provide modifications or adjustments to poses to meet the needs of individual students.

VOICE OF THE READER

Frequent failure of SERVER in Sub-Registrar's Office

Sir,

Scientific temper for an individual and technology for administration are the need of a progressive society.

However, if the technology is dysfunctional and faulty for, on an average, four days in a week, that technology may well be discarded till some western engineer fixes the problem.

One person from Bengaluru came to the undersigned with a complaint of sorts this morning about the "Server Down" complaint at the Sub-Registrar's Office. This is the third time he was coming to Mysuru only for registering a document and going back unable to register the document BECAUSE the almighty "Server is Down."

I told the complainant to keep cool as the government is also a victim of this SERVER DOWN Syndrome and as a result Gruha Jyothi Scheme is stalled for three days. He said in that case let the Sub-Registrar give a definite date when the SERVER would be functional so that he would come only on that day.

Will the authorities fix the SERVER? If not possible government must make some alternative arrangements to help these hundreds of people who go to the Sub-Registrar's Office on working days. Apparently, with server down it would be a staggering holiday for the staff.

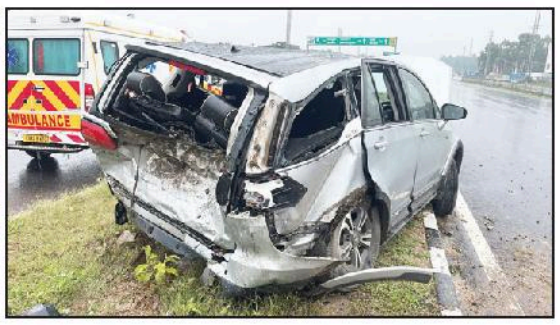
Surge in fatal accidents on Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway

3 killed as car rams into SUV after hitting road divider



Mandya, June 21- A car hit the road divider on Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway and rammed into a SUV, killing a couple and the driver on the spot and leaving one severely injured near Gejjalagere in Maddur taluk of Mandya district yesterday.

The deceased have been identified as Neeraj Kumar (55) and his wife Selvi (50) of Uttar Pradesh and car driver Kumar (30), a native of Koppa.

The seriously injured is the couple's son Srivatsav, a techie, working at an IT Company in Bengaluru. Srivatsav has been admitted to Mandya District Hospital.

Neeraj Kumar was serving as the Additional Director of Training and Recruitment Division in Uttar Pradesh.

Yesterday at about 7.30 am, Neeraj Kumar, Selvi and Srivatsav left Bengaluru to Madikeri in a Maruti Dzire taxi.

While proceeding on Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway near Gejjalagere, the driver lost control of the car after it went over stagnant rain water on the Expressway resulting in the car hitting the median and ramming into a Tata Nexon SUV which was moving in front of the car.

Due to the impact, Neeraj and Selvi were killed on the spot and driver Kumar breathed his last when being shifted to a hospital while Srivatsav sustained serious injuries.

Four occupants of Tata Nexon have also sustained injuries.

A case has been registered at Maddur Traffic Police Station in this regard.

Following the accident, traffic on the Expressway was disrupted for some time.

Police, with the help of public, managed to shift the injured to the hospital and made way for smooth flow of traffic.

Rider killed, pillion injured as tipper hits bike

Mysuru, June 21 (BS)- A motorbike rider was killed on the spot and the pillion rider suffered injuries when their vehicle was knocked down and run over by a sand-laden tipper lorry near Banchallihundi on Mysuru-Nanjangud Road.

Shivaswamy (30) of Arepura village in Gundlupet tauk is the deceased, while the pillion rider Mahesh, aged 24, of the same village, who has suffered critical injuries is admitted to a hospital in Mysuru.

The two are employed at Asian Paints Limited factory in Himmavu Industrial Area and were riding towards the factory for second shift, when the accident occurred. They were waiting on their vehicle to take a right turn, when the tipper lorry carrying M-Sand hit their vehicle. Following the impact, Shivaswamy came under the wheels of the tipper and was crushed to death. While the wheels of the tipper ran over the leg of pillion rider Mahesh.

The public have insisted that the Police should act against over-speeding heavy motor vehicles to prevent accidents. The lorry drivers resort to speed driving only to dodge the Police, but it's the riders who are severely inconvenienced due to sand particles hitting their eyes.

Sub-Inspector of Nanjangud Traffic Police Station Yasmeen Taj, who visited the spot, seized the vehicles after inspection, besides sending the body for post-mortem.

A case has been registered and investigation is on.

Posing as passengers, two flee with auto after robbing driver

Mysuru, June 21 (BS)- Two strangers, posing as passengers, who hired an autorickshaw, allegedly robbed the driver of his belongings before fleeing with the three-wheeler near Makanahundi in the outskirts in Mysuru taluk recently.

Nagesh Nayak, aged 63 years and resident of Ganesh Nagar in the city, is the victim, who was robbed of Rs. 6,000 and cellphone and also of his autorickshaw.

Nayak was near Gun House Circle on June 16 at around 6.20 pm, when two persons stopped him. They hired his auto for a fare of Rs. 150 to Bandipalya. After reaching Bandipalya, the two directed Nayak to go towards Hosahundi Road. Even after reaching Hosahundi, one among the passengers directed him to go further towards a farm house nearby, to fetch his wife to drop her to the bus stand in the same auto, to go to Bengaluru.

By the time they reached the place (Makanahundi), it was 7.20 pm and they asked him to stop there. They threw chilli powder on the head and face of Nayak, before assaulting him and robbing of Rs. 6,000 and his cellphone. As they continued to assault him, Nayak escaped from them and ran towards a banana plantation, for his life. The two miscreants later drove away with the autorickshaw of Nayak.

A case has been registered at Mysuru Rural Police Station.

It may be mentioned that, Varuna Police had recently busted a similar case and arrested a few. Of late, there has been a rise in cases with similar modus operandi where the miscreants hire autorickshaws in the guise of passengers from Gun House Circle and rob the driver and flee with their vehicles, after reaching Hosahundi. It has created an atmosphere of fear among autorickshaw drivers, who fret at the mention of passengers hiring auto towards Bandipalya in the evening hours.

The man who made Bangalore and Mysore a Garden City

A tribute to Rao Bahadur H.C. Javaraya

The abundant green cover of Karnataka, the gardens and parks included, is largely attributed to the far-sightedness of Wadiyars, the erstwhile rulers of Mysore Province. Barring the learned, especially those having a penchant for history, little does anybody know about Rao Bahadur Hiralli Chennaya Javaraya (1889-1946), known as H.C. Javaraya, the genius in himself, who under Wadiyar's rule made Bangalore a Garden City, not to ignore Mysore too.

A contemporary of another renowned name in the realm Gustav Hermann Krumbiegel, a German botanist, though senior to him by age and experience then, Javaraya later goes on to carve a niche career of his own, that would have gone unnoticed if not for the efforts of his grandchildren Harish Padmanabha, Vivek Bhaktaram and Sharmila Bhaktaram to pay a literary tribute to their accomplished ancestor by publishing a biography titled 'a Gardener and a Gentleman' under Kewgarth Group and authored by Meera Iyer.

Javaraya was the first Indian to work as the Director of Horticulture during princely rule and before reaching this post, he had occupied various positions. He started assisting Krumbiegel and soon became noticed by Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar, the then ruler of Princely Mysore State and his Dewan Sir Mirza Ismail. Even after retirement, Javaraya served Princely State of Bhopal as its 'Horticultural Advisor,' the new assignment he took up in Oct. 1945.

As Chiranjiv Singh, former Ambassador of India to UNESCO, writes in the foreword, Mr. Javaraya had a brilliant professional career. He set up many institutions: the Govt. Fruit Research Station at Hesaraghatta (which later became the Indian Institute of Horticultural Research), Maddur Fruit Orchard, Ganjam Fig Garden and many more.

Mention the famous Lalbabh that still remains one of the must-visit spots in the State capital, one cannot miss the Glass House and the famous flower show. The extended portion of the Glass House was built under the supervision of Javaraya, the foundation for which was laid in 1935. A Circle outside Lalbagh still bears the name of this illustrious personality.

A page each dedicated to Gardens in Bangalore and Mysore, managed by Government Gardens Department, gives a peek into the early works of Javaraya. The 'Gardens in Mysore' chapter has a mention 'Under Javaraya's charge' telling about the deft hand behind the making of Public Parks — Gordon Park (Old DC Office building) in Mysore, along with Curzon Park and Hardinge Circle (now Jayachamaraja Wadiyar Circle), Minor Gardens — Government House, Seshadri House (now Commercial Tax Office on Dewan's road), University Garden, K.R. Hospital, Maharani's College, Central Railway Office, Maharaja's College, Law Courts among others.

The biography, split into eight chapters with the black and white and sepia coloured photographs, adds a perfect colour to the well-crafted words of the author, which makes it an engaging read especially for those being inquisitive about history of Bangalore and Mysore. What prompts the urge to read more is the administrative system that was in place, when the good officers, most of them foreigners and less of Indians proved their ability and Javaraya is one among such rare find, who earned the title 'Rao Bahadur.'

It is only through such literary works one can easily visualise the genesis of the city and its growth, brick by brick and the author should be credited for her research bent of mind that is evident with many references, that all make for a perfect mix of water and soil that nurture the plant till it grows into a tree.

The cover page of the book is also green and it aptly denotes the freshness of memory that oozes out from the proud family members of Javaraya.—OSR

Before the Yoga performance, a stage programme was held where the event was inaugurated by Sri Someshwaranatha Swamiji, President of Adichunchanagiri Shakha Mutt, Mysuru, in the presence of Fr. Robin and Janab Tajmul Tanveer of Jamat-e-Islam.

MP Pratap Simha, who was also present during the inauguration, stated that practising Yoga enhances mental and physical well-being of individuals. He reflected on the endorsement of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's proposal to declare June 21 as World Yoga Day at the United Nations, which garnered support from numerous countries. Consequently, it has now become a global celebration.

Highlighting Mysuru's reputation as the City of Yoga, MP Simha encouraged individuals to incorporate Yoga into their daily lives in order to experience its plentiful benefits.

MLC C.N. Manjegowda mentioned that when they were young, they used to watch thespian Dr. Rajkumar practising Yoga. "Yoga provides vitality to the body, reduces mental stress, and helps maintain a joyful state throughout the day. Dr. Rajkumar emphasised the importance of introducing Yoga to the soldiers serving the country," he added.

Criminals extort money from elderly car drivers

Shocked at what the youth was saying, Mahadevappa told the youth that he had not hit their bike. The youth then asked Mahadevappa for a bottle of water and when Mahadevappa told him that he did not have, the youth went to the nearby Pani Puri push cart, brought water and poured it on the youth, who was sitting on the roadside and faking injuries.

The youth then told Mahadevappa to take the 'injured' youth in his car to a hospital while he follows them on the bike. When the car took a turn near St. Joseph's School on Temple Road, the youth, who followed them on a bike told Mahadevappa to stop and told him that he would himself get the 'injured' youth treated. "The 'injured' is a labourer. You have caused injuries to him. How will he lead his life now?" the youth questioned Mahadevappa.

Mahadevappa said that when he told the youth that he would get the 'injured' treated, the youth told him that he (Mahadevappa) seemed to be in a hurry and demanded Rs. 30,000 from Mahadevappa. When Mahadevappa told him that he does not have so much money with him and had only Rs. 1,400 in his purse, the youth told Mahadevappa to at least give Rs. 5,000 to which Mahadevappa told the youth that he could transfer the money through Google Pay or PhonePe. But the youths told Mahadevappa that they do not have the facility on their phone and took Rs. 1,400 from Mahadevappa and went away.

Mahadevappa further said that about three days ago two-wheeler riders had waylaid the car driven by Ramaiah, retired Director of the Department of Public Instruction and a resident of Kuvempunagar Police Station Road. After stopping the car near Vijaya Bank Circle, the youths abused Ramaiah by telling him that he had hit their bike and had extorted Rs. 500 from him. But Ramaiah did not lodge a Police complaint.

About a week back, A. Chandrappa, retired Professor of Commerce and a resident of Navilu Road in Kuvempunagar, also had a similar experience, Mahadevappa said and added that the miscreants were targeting senior citizens in the age group of 60 to 70 or above by saying that they had committed accident, threaten them and extort money besides stating that there was a gang which is committing such crimes in city.

Such incidents were also taking place on Bengaluru-Mysuru Highway: Such incidents were also frequently taking place on Mysuru-Bengaluru Highway before the Expressway was constructed. Due to timely action taken by the Police, after frequent complaints, such incidents had stopped. But now, these incidents are taking place in city limits and Police should act fast and take action.

Scenic Brindavan Gardens dotted with over 2,000 Yoga performers

Many students from schools brought to venue in goods tempos, sparking outrage

Srirangapatna, June 21 (Vinay Karekura&BCT)- Over 2,000 performed Yoga amidst the scenic premises of Brindavan Gardens at KRS this morning as part of the Ninth International Day of Yoga organised by Mandya District Administration.

However, due to severe lapses by the organisers, the performance was delayed by more than one hour and it finally began at 7.45 am. Long speeches by dignitaries took a lot of time and children were forced to wait. Restless children were seen getting bored listening to speeches early in the morning.

Children from various interior parts of Mandya and surrounding villages started from their homes as early as 4.30 am and 5 am to reach the KRS Dam at 6 am as they had been told by the organisers and their teachers. Though the gates of the Brindavan Gardens were opened at 6 am, there was lack of order as the crowd lined up in a haphazard way and there was no one to guide them.

Finally, the organisers realised the lapse and hurriedly arranged the lines and asked the children to sit in a particular order. Children had to bring their own Yoga mats and the annual practice of the District Administration to hand over free T-Shirts was discontinued this time.

The speeches by dignitaries began at around 6.50 am and went on till 7.45 am. The Yoga performance concluded at 8.30 am and students had to rush back to their schools on time after breakfast at 9 am while the VIPs on stage had already consumed fresh fruit juices. Hundreds of hungry children were trying their best to keep standing as they were exhausted.

Shockingly, several children were brought to the venue in goods tempos from their schools. Students from Morarji Desai School in Gangaguru arrived in a goods tempo, sparking outrage.

Yoga should be part of life: MLA Bandisiddegowda

Srirangapatna, June 21 (Vinay Karekura&BCT)- Yoga should be a daily practice in our lives for excellent physical and mental health, opined Srirangapatna MLA Ramesh Babu Bandisiddegowda. He was speaking at the Yoga Day celebrations organised at Brindavan Gardens (Krishna Raja Sagar Dam) by Mandya District Administration, Zilla Panchayat, AYUSH Department, Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports, Nehru Yuva Kendra, Department of Public Instruction, Department of PU Education and Patanjali Yoga Training Committee.

"Before starting our daily work, we should dedicate half-an-hour of our morning time to Yoga for better health and family happiness. Practising Yoga leads to successful execution of all other activities. Many great personalities have followed this and provided guidance," he said.

Deputy Commissioner Dr. Kumar spoke about how Yoga has the power to integrate the body, mind and soul. India is considered the global guru in the field of Yoga education. He emphasised that everyone should practise Yoga and incorporate it into their lives to promote health.

"While the body is hardware, the mind is software. If the body has issues, it can be treated medically. But if the mind has issues, it becomes difficult to treat. Therefore, Yoga practice is necessary to harmonise the body and mind," he said.

Superintendent of Police (SP) N. Yathish spoke about the stress faced by Police personnel while performing their duties. "If Police personnel practise Yoga, they can provide even better service to the public," he opined.

What unites us, is Yoga: PM

New Delhi, June 21 (PIB)- Prime Minister Narendra Modi addressed the National celebration of International Day of Yoga (IDY) 2023 via video message this morning. The national celebration of 9th International Day of Yoga was led by Vice- President of India Jagdeep Dhankhar at Jabalpur in Madhya Pradesh.

Narendra Modi

The PM conveyed his best wishes to the citizens on the International Day of Yoga and explained that he is connecting with them via a video message as he is currently touring the United States of America due to various commitments, unlike previous occasions of Yoga Day when he was present here.

The PM informed that he will be attending the Yoga programme at the United Nations Headquarters around 5.30 pm (Indian time) and said, "The coming together of more than 180 countries on India's call is historic and unprecedented."

He recalled the support of a record number of countries in 2014 when the proposal for Yoga Day was tabled in the UN General Assembly making Yoga a global movement and a global spirit through the International Day of Yoga.

"What unites us, is Yoga", the PM explained quoting the sages. He further added that the propagation of Yoga is an extension of the idea that the whole world is included as one family. Highlighting the theme of 'One Earth, One Family, One Future' for the G20 Summit being chaired by India this year, the Prime Minister underlined that the propagation of Yoga is the propagation of the spirit of 'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam'. "Today, crores of people all over the world are doing yoga together on the theme of 'Yoga for Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam', he added.

Power tariff hike bandh: Mysuru hotels to remain open tomorrow

Mysuru, June 21(BLU&DM)- The Mysuru Hotel Owners Association has announced that it will not support the Karnataka Bandh scheduled for tomorrow (June 22). This Bandh call, initiated by the Hubballi-based Karnataka Chamber of Commerce and Industries and other organisations, is in protest against the significant increase in power tariffs.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, Association President C. Narayanagowda stated that the Association will not endorse the bandh. He stated that the bandh would be ineffective and serve no purpose, as it often fails to make a substantial impact. Moreover, he highlighted the adverse effects the bandh would have on the Hotel Industry, which has just begun to recover from the impact of the COVID pandemic.

Instead of resorting to a bandh, Narayanagowda urged the organisers to present their concerns directly to the Chief Minister and his Cabinet colleagues. He emphasised that while the hotel industry operates on a commercial basis, it is ultimately a service industry that should prioritise the needs of tourists and the general public.

Stressing that the bandh would only inconvenience the public and tourists, Narayanagowda reiterated the firm stance of the Mysuru Hotel Owners Association against supporting such measures.

Mysuru's first Botanical Garden with rare plants smells of sewage

Horticulture Department writes multiple letters to MCC, MUDA, Forest Department; relief not in sight

By M.T. Yogesh Kumar

Mysuru, June 21- The Mysuru city's first Botanical Garden, which was intended to join the long list of existing natural water bodies, parks, boulevards and green canopies is in danger of turning into a neglected place. Sewage water is entering a natural pond inside the Garden and polluting the entire vicinity with a foul smell permeating the air.

The ready-to-be-inaugurated Botanical Garden is located at the scenic Lingambudhi Lake in Srirampura II Stage, Ramakrishnanagar. The Garden is on one of the banks of Lingambudhi Lake which was built by Mummadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar in 1828 in memory of Maharani Krishna Vilasa Lingajammanni.

While the Lake has a 250-acre area, the Botanical Garden is spread over 15 acres of the total 30 acres handed over by the Forest Department. The idea of the Lingambudhi Botanical Garden was floated in 2011 along the lines of the Lalbagh Botanical Garden and the Botanical Garden at Ooty.

The Mysuru Botanical Garden has over 350 varieties of plants and medicinal plants, dedicated to the collection, acclimatisation, conservation, multiplication and display of a wide range of indigenous and exotic plant species. Over Rs. 3 crore to Rs. 4 crore has been spent to build the Garden.

Sewage line

Lotus pond

Though the actual areas from where the sewage is flowing has not yet been identified, areas like Aravindanagar, Dattagalli, Ramakrishnanagar are known to discharge waste water to the Lingambudhi Lake and one of the sewage lines might be entering the Botanical Garden pond.

Natural pond turns cesspool

When the landscaping of the Botanical Garden was being planned and a blueprint was being prepared, the planners discovered a natural pond that was full of silt. However, in order to protect the natural environment in the Garden, the pond was cleaned and protected to retain the natural look

Engineers and landscapers rejuvenated the water body and tonnes of silt were scientifically removed and a bund was built to hold clear water. This was to invite the bird population.

Unfortunately, the present state of the pond is pathetic with gallons of sewage flowing inside every day. If a permanent solution is not found, there is a danger of this Botanical Garden — that has a huge potential to be one of the prime tourist attractions in Mysuru city — turning into a neglected place.

Multiple letters to MCC, MUDA

All the beautifying works of the Garden have been completed and is ready for inauguration with the sewage-filled pond being the only eyesore.

The Horticulture Department has written multiple letters to the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC), Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) and the Forest Department requesting them to block the sewage line and shift the drain to a suitable place away from the Botanical Garden. But no help is forthcoming and the Horticulture Department does not have the technical expertise to shift the drain or block the sewage entry.

Artistically designed locale

The Botanical Garden features various themed sections such as medicinal and aromatic garden, rose garden, topiary garden, butterfly garden, bamboo block, ficus block, rockeries, arboretums, fragrance block, palmatum section, minor fruit block and well-maintained water pools to attract aquatic birds.

Lingambudhi Botanical Garden has a distinct bamboo block with 17 different species and ficus block houses over 18 species of ficus trees with wide canopies, acting as a lung space for the lake. The Garden also boasts rare lotus varieties and a pergola providing shelter and shade along the pathway. The pergola is adorned with beautiful red jade vines that bloom twice a year.

This Garden is not in any way less standard when compared to other noted Botanical Gardens. In some aspects, it is better than the one in Ooty with a rare collection of medicinal and exotic plants. Even the public and regular visitors have urged the MCC or MUDA to divert the sewage line entering the pond.

Fruition

Pronunciation: froo-ISH-un.
Meaning: Fruition refers to a state of being complete or fully realised. It's usually used in the phrases "come to fruition" or "bring to fruition." Fruition can also refer to the state of bearing fruit.
Origin: Fruition must come from the word fruit, right? Not exactly — the apple falls a little further from the tree than one might think. Fruition & fruit are related (both ultimately come from Latin verb frui, meaning "to enjoy"), but they came about independently. The original meaning of fruition had nothing to do with fruit. Rather, when the term was first used in 15th century, it meant only "pleasurable use or possession," as when playwright and Shakespeare contemporary Christopher Marlowe wrote of "the sweet fruition of an earthly crown." Not until several centuries later did fruition develop a second meaning, "the state of bearing fruit," possibly as the result of a mistaken assumption that fruition evolved from fruit. The "state of bearing fruit" sense was followed quickly by figurative application to anything that can be "realised" and metaphorically bear fruit, such as a plan or a project.
Example: "Investors debuting on the 2023 Midas list saw their early bets made decades ago come to fruition in recent years." — Rashi Shrivastava, Forbes, 4 May 2023

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Flesh and blood

Meaning: When you say that someone is your own 'Flesh and Blood' you are denoting that they are, or are like, part of your family. The term is also used to refer to mankind in general.
Origin: The phrase 'Flesh and Blood' is ancient, with the first reference being found in print circa 1000 CE in an Old English translation of the Bible, the Anglo-Saxon Gospels, Matthew XVI 17.
Example: "She's my own flesh and blood; I can't believe she treated me that way!"
